

A diagnostic group can contain unrelated people whose records share a failure mechanism, such as address truncation. Its membership is a reason to inspect a possible repair; it is not an entity label.

Illustrative records and identity labels are defined by construction. Y : same entity; H : shared context.