

A diagnostic group can collect (a, b) and (a, c) because both pairs agree on clinic.
Yet $Y(a, b) = 1$ and $Y(a, c) = 0$: the shared comparison outcome does not establish identity.

Illustrative records and identity labels are defined by construction. Y : same entity; H : shared context.